11/07/2008

HOCHTIEF Facility Management will be responsible for technical facility management at the German headquarters of British American Tobacco in Hamburg for the next three years.

British American Tobacco Germany produces and markets all of the company's tobacco products in Germany, including well-known brands such as Lucky Strike, Pall Mall, HB and Lord. The tasks of Essen-based HOCHTIEF Facility Management will include, among others, maintenance and servicing of the ventilation, sanitary and fire alarm systems at the headquarters facilities. In Bremen, the company has been managing a British American Tobacco production site for some years already.
