HOCHTIEF to operate 52 public sector buildings in Hessen

Facility management at police departments, internal revenue offices and courts - contractual term of three years

HOCHTIEF Facility Management has received an order to take over the technical and infrastructure facility management for 52 public sector buildings from Hessisches Immobilienmanagement, the real estate company of the Federal State of Hessen. The properties include court buildings, police stations and departments, and internal revenue offices at several locations in Central Hessen. The company will perform the services for an initial period of three years.

The 52 properties are located in Dillenburg, Wetzlar, Giessen, Friedberg and Bad Vilbel. The company will maintain and repair technical facilities at the buildings and ensure that the properties are maintained. Moreover, a 24-hour standby service has been agreed.
